GENRE HUBS

The DJ Calendar is an independent tour directory and editorial site for electronic music.

We answer one question: where is this DJ playing next? Every listed artist is on the DJ Mag Top 100 roster.

We aggregate tour dates, venues, ticket links, and structured data. We are not a ticket seller.

HOW OUR SYSTEM WORKS

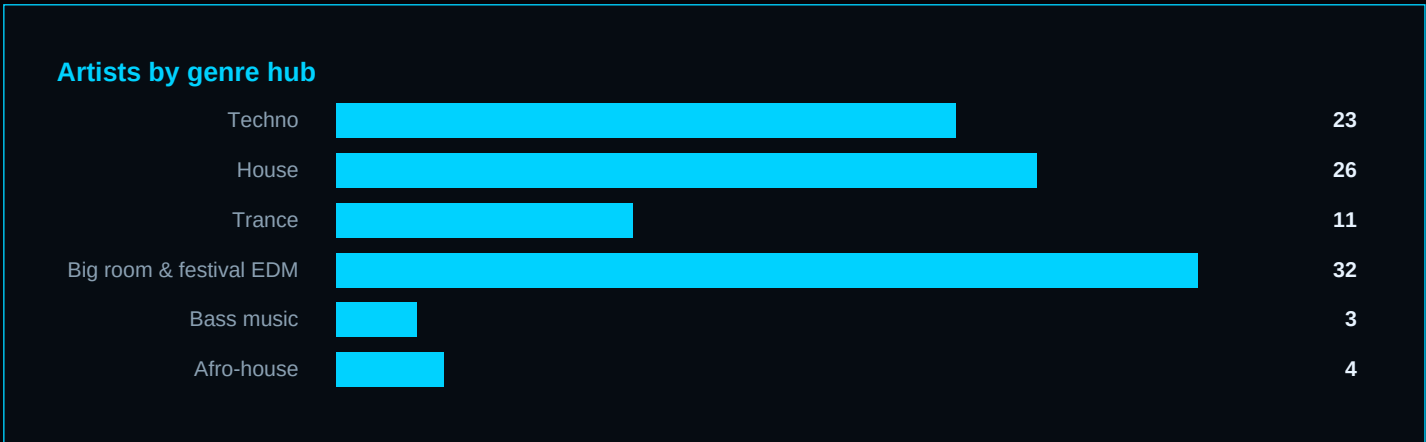

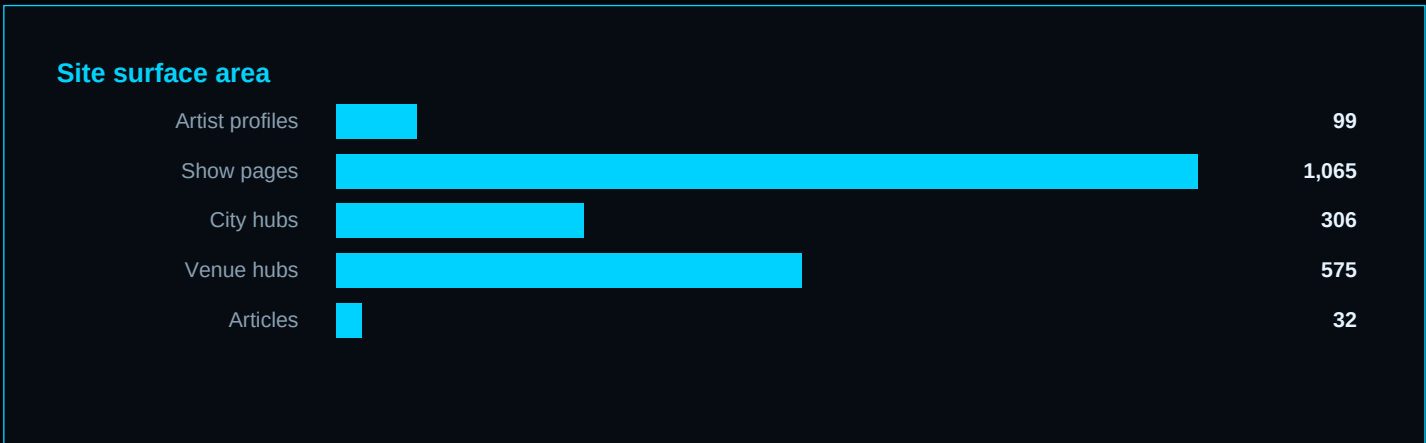

01 - Collect: Tour feeds, partner APIs, and licensed listing data for DJ Mag Top 100 artists.

02 - Normalize: Dates, venues, cities, coordinates, and ticket URLs into one canonical calendar.

03 - Enrich: Track previews, FAQ snippets, MusicEvent JSON-LD, genre hubs, and editorial articles.

04 - Distribute: Search engines, AI agents, iCal feeds, email alerts, and social share previews.

HOW ARTISTS BENEFIT

Every DJ Mag Top 100 artist gets a canonical profile built for discovery, search, and ticket conversion. Teams can claim their profile for verification.

CANONICAL PROFILE PAGE

Every roster artist gets a permanent URL with tour dates, venues, ticket links, and structured data Google and AI assistants can cite.

PROFILE CLAIM & VERIFICATION

Artists and teams can claim their page at /claim/ - approved profiles display an Artist approved badge on the hero.

TRACK PREVIEWS ON-PAGE

Up to five 30-second iTunes clips with EQ visuals help fans discover your sound before they buy tickets.

EMAIL SHOW ALERTS

Fans subscribe to your routing - when new dates appear, alert subscribers get notified (drives ticket clicks).

PER-ARTIST ICAL EXPORT

Fans add your tour to Apple Calendar, Google Calendar, or Outlook - one artist or the full roster.

SIMILAR ARTISTS & GENRE HUBS

Discovery surfaces place you beside DJ Mag peers in the same tier - techno, house, trance, and festival EDM hubs.

EDITORIAL & NEWS COVERAGE

Tour-day articles, festival routing roundups, and venue weeks link directly to your show pages when you are on the road.

SEARCH & AI VISIBILITY

Schema.org MusicEvent on show pages, FAQPage on profiles, and agent APIs - built for Google, Bing, and answer engines.
